First Meeting of the Editorial Board of the second edition of the Global Ocean Science Report (GOSR-II)

IOC-UNESCO Headquarters, Paris, 24-26 April 2018

PRACTICAL INFORMATION
Welcome to the IOC

The IOC Secretariat is located at UNESCO Headquarters, in the 7th arrondissement (district), South West of Paris. The main entrance is at 7, Place de Fontenoy, Paris.

How to get to IOC/UNESCO

- From Charles de Gaulle (Roissy) airport

  By RER/Metro 60 minutes, €11.40

  There is a regional express rail link (the RER) from the airport. From Terminal 1 take the CDGVAL automatic shuttle (at door 34 lowest level) to the stop Terminal 3-Roissypole and enter the Aéroport Charles-de-Gaulle 1 rail station.
From Terminal 2 the Aéroport Charles-de-Gaulle 2 TGV rail station is centrally located between terminals 2E/2F and 2C/2D; follow signs for ‘Paris by train’.

Take the RER line B (direction St-Rémy-lès-Chevreuse) and get off at Saint-Michel Notre-Dame. Please note that ticket machines accept cash or credit cards with smart chips, otherwise use the manned counters.

Transfer to the Metro line 10 (your ticket will be required again) in the direction of Boulogne Pont de St-Cloud (note for the return trip you are now in the Cluny-La Sorbonne station), and get off at Ségur. From there it is a 5 minute walk to the entrance at 7 place de Fontenoy.

Alternate public transport routes
Include the Roissybus to Opéra, or the Air France bus (‘les cars AF’) routes to Porte Maillot/Arc de Triomphe or Gare de Lyon/Montparnasse, which are only recommended if your final destination is close to one of these end points.

By taxi
40 minutes without traffic (up to 3x at peak times), €50 (fixed fee). A taxi can be practical if you have a lot of luggage, but note that it can take well more than twice as long at peak times.

➢ From Orly airport

By RER/Metro 50 minutes, €10.90
There is a regional express rail link (the RER) from the airport. In the terminals, follow signs for ‘Orlyval-Paris by train’. Take the Orlyval automatic shuttle to the Antony RER station, where your ticket will be validated. Ticket machines accept cash or credit cards with smart chips, otherwise use the manned counters. Take the RER line B (direction Aéroport Charles de Gaulle) to Denfert-Rochereau. Transfer to the Metro line 6 (your ticket will be required again) in the direction of Charles de Gaulle-Étoile, and get off at Cambronne. From there it is a 5 minute walk to the entrance at 7, place de Fontenoy.

Alternate public transport routes
Include the Orlybus to Denfert-Rochereau, or the Air France bus (‘les cars AF’) route to Montparnasse/Invalides, both connecting to the Paris Metro system. Depending on traffic this can be somewhat quicker.

By taxi
25 minutes without traffic (up to 3x at peak times), €35 (fixed fee)

➢ From the Gare du Nord or Gare de l’Est

By Metro 30 minutes, €1.90
Take Metro line 4 in the direction of Porte d’Orléans to Odéon. Transfer to Metro line 10 in the direction of Boulogne Pont de Saint-Cloud to Ségur. From there it is a 2 minute walk to the entrance at 7 place de Fontenoy.

By taxi
20 minutes without traffic (up to 3x at peak times), €15-20.
